Father and Daughter Exchanged Shots 'Till Former Fell Dead.

DAUGHTER WAS ACQUITTED

Battle Was Raging While Daughter's Mother Lay Dying on Floor from Shot fired by Her Husband.

New York, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Madeline Langlotz, who figured in the tragedy of Thursday during which her father, George Wasser, killed his wife and the daughter in turn shot and killed her father, was exonerated by a coroner's jury Friday and discharged from custody. Mrs. Langlotz told a pitiful story of her father's cruelty toward his family.

The World Tells the story of the tragedy as follows:

Exchanging shot for shot at such close range that the blue smoke filling the room made her aim uncertain, Mrs. Madeline Langlotz engaged in a duel with her father, Geo. Wasser, that ended in his falling unconscious with a bullet in his head. The daughter had been nerved to a frenzy by seeing her father shoot her mother. Both the wife and husband died later in the Harlem hospital, and it remained for the children to tell the story of the double tragedy in the Wasser flat.

In the proceedings following the shooting, Mrs. Langlotz never once referred to Wasser as her father. She spoke of him as "the man," with the utmost contempt and scorn.

"He was a beast," said she, "and I am glad I shot him. He shot my mother, the best woman that ever lived. When I saw her fall I fired at that man the best I knew how, and I am glad one of the bullets hit him."

Mrs. Langlotz, whose husband died six months ago, is 29 years old. She is comely with light blue eyes and sprightly manner. When she was about 11 years old, her father threw a shadow on her life. According to the story told by both her and her younger sister, Wasser was a beast.

Mother Supported Family.

Fifteen years ago the Wassers came to this country from Germany. The family then comprised two girls and a boy. A year later another child, Annie, was born. From that time Wasser was a changed man. He accused his wife of misconduct.

Wasser was a laborer. His wife was capable and upon her fell the burden of rearing the family. In every way Wasser annoyed and hindered her. The mother was compelled to guard her daughters from him. Despite her carefulness, he committed an offense against Madeline. He was placed in an insane asylum for a short time some years since.

Five years ago the husband and wife separated. Mrs. Wasser took her children and endeavored to hide herself from their father. Besides Mrs. Langlotz and Annie, now 14, there are Adolph, a sturdy young man, and Mrs. Mary Finck. Wasser discovered where the family was living, and three years ago he served a term on Blackwell's Island for attempting to shoot his wife.

In June of 1905, he entered their flat and attacked Annie. For this he was arrested, and the case was taken up by the Children's Society, but Wasser went free. From that time the family had been in terror of the man.

Threatened to Kill All.

Last June Mrs. Wasser, with her daughters, opened an employment agency at No. 2058 Third avenue. Three weeks ago Wasser was seen lurking in the vicinity. On Sunday he chased little Annie on the street. Then Mrs. Wasser purchased a revolver for her protection.

Monday the man appeared at the flat and made a disturbance. Madeline rang up police headquarters and asked that a detective be sent to the house. This was not done. Late Wednesday night Mrs. Wasser called [illegible] Mrs. Wasser opened the door, who was 37 years of age, told her she wanted to take him home. "You can't do that. Fetch you and all the [illegible]," he turned and.

"I will never take you back," answered Mrs. Wasser.

These words proved her death warrant.

"Well, you will never tell them to the police again!" shouted Wasser, as he pulled a revolver.

Mrs. Wasser started to run into the next room. Her husband shot her in the breast. She fell to the floor with her clothes afire, so close was the range.

Mrs. Langlotz and Annie were in a rear room. They rushed out in time to see their mother fall. Remembering the revolver kept in a bureau drawer, the elder daughter told her sister to run and get it. Annie placed the weapon in Madeline's hand just as Wasser was raising his revolver to shoot again his helpless wife.

Fired Shot for Shot.

His hand was stayed by a bullet that flew past his face and smashed a picture on the wall behind him. Although she had never handled a revolver before, the young woman displayed remarkable skill and great courage.

Wasser returned the shot, but his aim was poor. Then, standing only 12 feet away from each other, the two exchanged bullet for bullet. Wasser fired four shots at his daughter, and not one found its mark. There were five cartridges in the girl's weapon, and the last one dropped the man with an ugly hole in his head.

BRYAN WILL SOUND KEYNOTE.

Will Open His 1908 Campaign in Indiana in November.

Mr. Bryan promised to sound the keynote of the campaign of 1908 at Lafayette some time in November. Mr. Risk pointed out the necessity of having a full expression of Mr. Bryan's views on public questions before the new state committeemen are chosen in January and the time for the speech was fixed to precede the selection of the new committee.

Death of Hiram P. Bell.

Atlanta, Aug. 19.—Hon. Hiram P. Bell, an ante bellum member of the legislature, both as representative and as senator, member of the secession convention, delegate to a sister state, commissioned to use his energies to induce that commonwealth to join its fortunes with the confederacy, a soldier fighting bravely against his convictions, a member of the confederate congress, and a member of the legislative body in both branches, after the civil war and a successful member of the legal fraternity, died Friday morning at the home of his son, George L. Bell, Spruce street, Inman Park, in the eighty-first year of his life.

Life Convict Shot and Killed

Macon, Ga., Aug. 19.—After a pursuit which lasted several hours in the shadows of Tobesofkee swamp, near Avondale, Boyce Givins, a negro life prisoner in the camps of the Georgia Brick company here, was shot to death by A. L. Dyer, an employee at the brick yards, who went to the vicinity to identify the escaped prisoner. Givins left the yards Tuesday by boldly walking past the guards. He was seen by a party of farmers near Avondale and pursuit was made. The negro went to the swamp and was there found by Dyer, who had gone down with a party of officers. The negro dashed into the creek and was killed while running.

Five Miners Killed.

Pittsburg, Aug. 19.—By the overturning of an elevator cage at the Tipple of the Sonman shaft Coal company, near Johnstown, Pa., five miners were killed and six injured. The miners fell 400 feet.

CONFERENCE IS ENDED

Central Bondholders to Receive Fair Treatment, It Is Said.

ANOTHER MEETING AUG. 23

Results of Recent Meeting of Representatives of the Income Bondholders of the Central of Georgia Railway and New Owners.

New York, Aug. 19.—After three days' conference the representatives of income bondholders of the Central of Georgia railway and the new owners of the road in the persons of Oakleigh Thorne and Marsden J. Perry have parted, leaving the points at issue to be settled at a meeting of the board of directors scheduled for August 23.

The spokesman for the bondholders said after the conference that the new controlling interests in the company had given them every facility to arrive at the exact status of the railroad finances and that they were confident of receiving fair treatment from the directors.

It was also stated that the results of the recent meetings showed that the interest had been earned on the bonds and that the holders of all classes of securities were entitled to interest payments.

WORK OF WRECKERS.

Passenger Train on Georgia Railroad Is Derailed.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Passenger train No. 27, on the Georgia railroad, which left Augusta at 2:20 o'clock Friday afternoon for Atlanta, was derailed near Dearing, Ga., as the result of the work of wreckers.

Rounding a curve Engineer B. H. Morrison saw a pile of rocks on the track before him, but he was unable to stop his train in time to prevent the engine crashing into the rocks.

In the smashup three of the cars were hurled from the track and turned over and the engine was damaged. The fireman was badly injured.

Beyond a few bruises and a severe shaking up, however, the passengers were not hurt in the accident.

As soon as it was possible to get wire connection with Augusta and explain the situation a relief train was ordered out, and dogs were secured to track the wreckers.

APPLIED TORCHES.

Depredations by Night Riders in Tennessee.

Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 19—Night riders set fire to the general merchandise store of W. E. Wall, of Fredonia, this county.

Wall is not a member of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association, and recently received a letter to join or to leave the country. The store and the stock were valued at $5,000, with insurance amounting to $1,700. Coal oil had been poured on the store by the incendiaries.

On the same night a party of men went to the farm of Mrs. Elizabeth Nicholson, a short distance away, and pulled up nine acres of tobacco, completely ruining it. Mrs. Nicholson is a widow, aged 70 years, and is prostrated over her loss.

[illegible]

Girl Thought To Be Incendiary.

Columbus, Ga., Aug. 19.—Suspected of connection with the recent act of incendiarism at Fortson, Ga., when the store and stock of T. W. Fortson were destroyed and the entire village was threatened by the flames, Josie Anthony, a young negro girl of that place, has been arrested and put in the Muscogee county jail.

Killed by His Wife.

Peru, Ind., Aug. 19.—Zulu Sampson, aged 40, negro, was murdered at New Waverly by his wife, Bruce Sampson, aged 18, who resented her husband's interference when she sat in a white woman's lap. The parties are vaudeville artists.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Senate Votes Down Income Tax by a Vote of 25 to 14.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Five railroad commissioners and each of the board, two of whom are to be appointed by the governor at once, each of the house Friday night by a vote of 132 to 2, when the conference committee on the powers of the railroad commission, was passed after a session which had lasted, except for a brief recess at lunch time, from 9 to 8 o'clock.

It is provided in the bill that the two commissioners appointed by the governor shall hold office only until their successors are elected at the election next year and qualify for their offices, which are to be turned over to them on December 1, 1908. It was on this appointive power that the chief fight of the day was made, as it was contended the state had spoken on the subject and assured all commissioners elected by the people.

By the large vote of 25 to 14, the senate Friday afternoon refused to adopt the administration measure relative to levying a 1 per cent income tax on all railroads, telegraph companies, sewing machine companies, soft drink manufacturing enterprises, etc.

This measure was strongly advocated by the administration, and the refusal of the senate to adopt the provision as passed by the house will greatly decrease the tax income of the state.

The most important measure passed by the senate at the morning session was the amendment to the general tax act which placed a tax of $10,000 on all lockers, instead of $300, as was passed by the house.

At the night meeting of the senate a discussion was precipitated over the military bill of Representative Clau Smith, of Campbell. The measure provides for the conforming of the militia of the state of Georgia with the requirements of the act of the United States congress and was passed by a vote of 31 to 7.

COMER SIGNS MONUMENT BILL.

Bill Provides for Statue of Jefferson Davis.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 19.—Governor Comer has signed the bill for the widening of the approach to the capitol from Dexter avenue, and providing for the erection of a statue to Jefferson Davis, the first and only president of the confederacy, in a plaza in the center of that approach. The bill carries an appropriation of $15,000 for the work.

The bill creating the Alabama monument commission, which will have charge of the placing of monuments of the hero dead of Alabama, was also approved. The commission is to consist of the governor, the state auditor, the state treasurer, the director of the department of archives and history, and eight confederate soldiers to be named by the governor.

These others were approved also: H. B. No. 1,219 to authorize and require the refund of any money erroneously paid or collected for taxes, whether paid under compulsion or protest or not. H. B. No. 1,378 to allow cities and towns to issue bonds to pay outstanding indebtedness not evidenced by bonds.

Would Be Signal for Massacre.

Tangier, Aug. 19.—Private letters which have just reached Tangier from Fez state that the members of the diplomatic corps are of the opinion that the sultan is sincere in his desire to prevent an extension of the troubles, but that there is a division of views among his advisers. The consulates at Fez are guarded by the troops, but any attempt on the part of European [illegible] would be the signal for a massacre.

Plunged to Death in Bathtub.

Zanesville, Ohio, Aug. 19.—James McNeills, unmarried, committed suicide at his home [illegible] by diving into a bathtub filled with [illegible]. A [illegible] was practically instantaneous. When the body was found, a [illegible] was in his hand. For weeks McNeills had been despondent, but [illegible] he kept to himself.

HAD TRAGIC ENDING

Fatal Termination of Romance of Four Years.

M'CORMICK-CONVERSE CASE

Speeding in "Red Devil," Crash Comes, and McCormick Is Killed, as Is Also the Woman Whom He Eloped with.

New York, Aug. 19.—The sensational romance which for years has attached the names of the young millionaire, Paul McCormick, and the beautiful society matron Carrie Converse, was ended in blood when she was instantly killed and he fatally injured in a frightful automobile wreck in Darien, Conn. Two other women were badly hurt in the tragic ending of the "romance.."

Racing at 60 miles an hour another machine all the way from New Haven to Stamford, young McCormick hurled his great Ford car into the rear of a buggy, then crashed from the road into a maple tree. When the coroner reached the scene two hours later the woman sat bolt upright in her seat, her head laid open and a great hole gaping in her side. Forty feet away, upon the hillside, lay the millionaire, his skull fractured, both legs broken, unconscious and upon the point of death.

The rival automobile had sped away, stopping only to learn that death had ended the race.

The two other women who occupied the buggy escaped with fractured shoulders and arms.

The violent finish of the McCormick-Converse alliance had been often predicted by those who knew the history of its beginning. McCormick, the scion of one of the richest and oldest families of Poughkeepsie, became a "speed fiend," the first day that automobile racing was introduced in the country. His reckless driving in his mammoth "red devil" won him many fines, more narrow escapes from death and the heart of Mrs. Carrie Converse back in 1901.

Mrs. Converse was the wife of a wealthy merchant in Poughkeepsie, but in spite of the social leadership she held and the family to which she had hitherto been devoted, she eloped with the rich young chauffeur in the "red devil" four years ago.

The couple toured the country at break-neck speed, while the deserted husband sued McCormick for a hundred thousand dollars' damages and his wife for divorce.

Finally, McCormick paid $5,000 [illegible] the release of Mrs. Converse from her marriage vows and married her himself. Since then the two had abandoned the social circles they formerly frequented and lived either in this city or in their summer home in Liberty Hill, Conn.

Negro Hanged at Sandersville.

Sandersville, Ga., Aug. 19.—Will Nix, a negro, who shot and killed Bob Jackson, a negro, last winter at Riddleville, this county, while attending a negro "hot supper," was hanged Friday in the jail yard by Sheriff S. M. Moye, the trap falling at 8 o'clock. Nix was convicted in the March term of the superior court, and sentenced to be hanged in May by Judge B. T. Rawlings, but a respite of a few months was granted, that an appeal for a new trial might be made. Up until the past few weeks Nix has denied his guilt, but recently confessed to different ministers that have called on him.

Men Fell Three Stories.

Bainbridge, Ga., Aug. 19.—Friday morning there were five men working on a scaffold at the top of the three-story Toole building, now in course of construction in the city. One of the supports of the scaffold, it is said, was only held in place by two tenpenny nails. Being heavily loaded with brick and the five men, it fell and came tumbling down a distance of 50 feet. Jack Hanley, a carpenter, was seriously if not fatally injured, and Frank Kelly, a negro, was painfully hurt. Strange to say, the other three men escaped all injury.

ALACHUA HAS GOT THE ROAD FEVER

Half Mile of Fine Hard Road Is Just Completed There.

MATERIAL IS VERY EXCELLENT.

It Consists of Clay and Pebble, and Will Make a Road to Last, With Proper Care, for a Lifetime—Commissioner Dampier is Enthusiastic.

Commissioner John G. Dampier, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, is nothing if he is not enterprising, when it comes to road-building. Commissioner Dampier has just completed a half-mile or more of hard road in his district, extending from the progressive town of Alachua in a northerly direction, and everyone in the district who knows what a good road is, are congratulating the commissioner and his efficient superintendent, Mr. Forster, on the work.

"This road was put down to stay," remarked Commissioner Dampier, in speaking of the work, "and it will be a permanence which will prove of great benefit to the good people of Alachua and my district."

The road is thirteen feet wide, with a crown of seven inches, of twelve inches from curb to curb. The material used is clay and pebble, of which there is an inexhaustible abundance right in the vicinity of Alachua.

A Liberal Spirit.

The work, which is one of the best pieces of road in the county, was completed in fifteen days, under direction of Superintendent Forster, at a cost of $250.15. The citizens of Alachua showed their liberal spirit, for the amount they raised by public subscription, while the cost of construction was $250.15.

Alachua is Good Roads.

"Alachua is good roads," remarked Commissioner Dampier, "for I believe in this movement at this time, that it is the most practical way to secure good roads. I have become convinced that macadam roads are the greatest blessing that can come to any community, and you will in future find me on the side of the issue. I believe that good roads will accomplish more to-ward the development of a community than everything else combined, and this fact has been demonstrated in this community with only the few miles of hard road that we have. I congratulate the good people of Alachua and my district on 'catching the fever,' and feel sure they will keep it up.

"Of all the districts in Alachua county which should be a special subscription district," continued Commissioner Dampier, "that district is Alachua. After a careful investigation, I have discovered vast deposits of as fine road building material in that district as can be found in the State, and I trust that the good people of that section will decide to incorporate into a special district at no very distant day."

Mail Carrier Resigns.

Jesse Rainey, colored, for more than a quarter of a century the faithful mail carrier and clerk of the United States mails between the postoffice and various depots, has resigned his position, and has retired to private life.

It was not because Jesse was not giving the most eminent satisfaction that he relinquished this position, but because of failing health. Indeed, Postmaster Lynch, Assistant Postmaster Bell and the entire force were sorry to see him leave, for he was always faithful, never tardy in all conditions of weather, and had become, virtually, a "part and parcel" of the postoffice here.

Jesse's resignation calls for another to take his place, and Postmaster Lynch states that the position will be let by bid. Those desiring to bid for same may get particulars by calling at the postoffice.

First Presbyterian Church.

The announcement that Dr. Andrew Sledd, president of the University of Florida, would preach at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, attracted a good congregation, as Dr. Sledd is an eloquent, earnest and impressive speaker, and our good people never miss an opportunity to hear him. The result was that the edifice was comfortably filled.

The music at this service was also good, the new organ now being in fine condition.

The White House is Appreciated.

The citizens of Gainesville, as well as the traveling public, realize the advantage of having in the city an up-to-date hotel, where the service and menu is not surpassed by any hotel in the State.

Among others, the following registered at the White House Sunday: C. D. Dennis, city; Antonio Paul, France; H. S. Chubb, England; W. M. Ballard, W. M. Dale, C. W. Chase, T. W. Chase, city; A. S. Anderson, Isle of Man, England; J. R. Ganey, Jacksonville; W. R. Thomas, S. J. Thomas, S. J. Thomas, Jr., Clarence B. Thomas, city; Miss Griffith, Jacksonville; Mrs. S. J. Thomas, Mrs. C. W. Chase, Mrs. W. M. Dale, Miss Virginia Dale, J. B. Padgett, L. J. Burkhim, Phillip Miller, city; C. C. Ostrander, Sidel; Lee Tankersley, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. J. B. Gerald, Miss Elizabeth Gerald, Tampa; George Westbrook, Jacksonville.

Mr. Pournell Prospereous.

A letter has been received from P. E. Pournell, formerly of this city, where he was engaged in the grocery business, enclosing a dollar for the renewal of his subscription to Alachua's luminary.

Mr. Pournell says: "I am still selling groceries, and have a very nice trade, but I often think of the old postoffice corner down in Gainesville, and want to open up there again for a few days just to shake hands with my old friends."

Mr. Pournell's friends here will be glad to learn that he is prospering in his new field, Fort White.

A Methodist Baptism.

The services at the First Methodist church Sunday evening were unusually impressive. They comprised a song service of twenty minutes or a half hour, and an interesting sermon by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Nixon, which was followed by a baptismal ceremony, C. C. Cagle having been received into the church.

Owing to the fact that there were no services at the First Presbyterian church in the evening, the congregation at the Methodist church was quite large.

The Millionaires.

It's time to be thankful, if you're poor and happy, when you read this brief story of a millionaire:

"He is worth $10,000,000, and is perfectly willing to give half for an appetite, and the luxury of feeling sleepy when night comes!"

A Text for You.

"You must watch out whar you gwine in dis worl'," said the old colored preacher. "Even de devil won't wade too fur in deep water fer fear de fire will be out!"

The Doctor's Opinion.

A Georgia youngster has this eloquent chronicle on his "Daddy's Day Fishing":

"Dad went fishin' yesterday an' didn't git home till mighty late, with only a jug, an' no fish. Maw met him at the door, an' now the doctor says he'll be able to be out in six weeks."

Says a Georgia philosopher: "There isn't much use in sending tracts to the heathen, for when the fire gets too hot for 'em they'll make tracks fast enough!"

"The Wisdom of a Day" is the title of a new book; and heaven knows, that's all we need; for if we possessed the wisdom of a whole year we'd fall under the weight of our own superiority!

A Distinguished Visitor.

The Rev. F. H. Craighill, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Gainesville, Fla., was the guest of the Rev. T. J. Purdue last week. He came in the interest of the Men's Thanksgiving offering for missions, which is to be presented next October at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church at Richmond, in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the Episcopal Church in America, the first service being held by an English clergyman in Jamestown, 300 years ago.

Mr. Craighill raised $100 for this purpose from the men of the Episcopal Church of this city.

The visit of Mr. Craighill was very much enjoyed at the rectory.—Apalachicola Times.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. COUNTY NORMAL OPENED MONDAY

Principal Cassels Feels Encouraged Over Opening Day.

GREAT WORK IS NOW EXPECTED.

The Students Got Down to Work With a Vim and Determination, and the Term Promises to Prove of Great Benefit to Those Who Attend.

The first session of the County Annual Normal, which institution was ordered at the last meeting of the Board of Public Instruction of Alachua county to be held each year, began Monday morning, with Prof. W. H. Cassels, principal of the Alachua High school, one of the most competent educators in the county, in charge.

The session, which will run until, and including, September 2, is being conducted at the Gainesville Graded and High school building, and, considering the fact that such short notice was given, together with the fact that the State Normal has just closed, the enrollment at the opening was very encouraging, and Prof. Cassels states that he expects the list to increase from day to day, as many who have written their intention of coming did not arrive in time for the first day.

As has already been stated, the members of the School Board are heartily in sympathy with the State Normal and its purposes, that institution having the individual endorsement of every member of the board; but this Annual County Normal, which will hereafter be held in May, is destined for the enlightenment of those desiring to teach in Alachua county only. In other words, it will be merely a county adjunct to the State Normal.

"The attendance at the opening was really better than I had anticipated," remarked Professor Cassels, "owing principally to the fact that the State Normal has just closed and also the short notice given those desirous of availing themselves of the opportunity. I feel that the term, however, is going to prove of great benefit, as those who have enrolled at once entered upon their work with a determination to accomplish something. I am expecting the number of students to be considerably increased within the next two or three days, when we will get down to business right."

Immediately following the County Normal the examination of applicants for positions as teacher will be held. This examination will begin on the morning of September 3, continuing for four days.

CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies — one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills — which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. CUTICURA

The Great Skin Cure and Purest and Sweetest of Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is, beyond question, the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, yet compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent (Liquid or Pills), is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when most, if not all, other remedies and even physicians fail.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults, consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

E. B. Godwin of Paradise was in the city yesterday, and among other business was a renewal of his subscription to The Daily Sun.

J. D. Williams has returned from Hampton, where he has been engaged for the past few weeks laying brick on the new bank building, which is now completed.

Dr. T. F. Thomas has returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been for the benefit of his health for the past few weeks. Friends will be glad to learn that his condition is greatly improved.

Mrs. M. H. Goodwin and children of Fairbanks were in the city yesterday. They were en route home from Paradise, where they have been on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Godwin, and were met here by Mr. Godwin.

Mr. and Mrs. William Broome of Gainesville are guests in the city today for a day's shopping. Mr. Broome is one of Gainesville's most prominent young attorneys, and a brother of Mrs. Fred King of this city. Mrs. Broome, as Miss Finley, was always a popular visitor to Jacksonville, and was frequently the guest of her sister, Mrs. William H. Caristophel. Mr. and Mrs. Broome will leave Florida the latter part of next week for a stay of a month in North Carolina.—Jacksonville Metropolis, Monday.

Mr. Fred Davis, of the Jacksonville Weather Bureau, and his father, Judge Horatio Davis of Gainesville, joined Mrs. Davis and little Miss Leah on Saturday, and the party have gone to the old plantation in Virginia, now presided over by Judge Davis' eldest son. This plantation has always been the property of a bachelor member of the family and was left to Mr. Davis by his uncle, the former owner. Mrs. Davis and Miss Leah have been guests of relatives at Charlottesville for several weeks.—Jacksonville Metropolis, Monday.

Returns to Hawthorn.

J. V. Brown remits The Sun a dollar for subscription, being a renewal, and states that he is again located at Hawthorn, his former home, where he is enjoying improved health.

Mr. Brown's numerous friends throughout the East End have missed him, and gladly welcome his return to Hawthorn.

PEDRICK AND DAMPIER RAN AGAINST STUMP

Exorbitant Prices Are Wanted for Public Right-of-Way.

CHARGE FOR MATERIAL ALSO.

Commissioners Must Pay Five Cents a Load for Material to Construct Road to West, Hence Abandoned Plan to Go to Work Elsewhere.

Notwithstanding that ninety-five per cent of the people of the State, including those of Alachua county, have arrived at the conclusion that hard roads are the proper thing, and one of the necessities of a modern time, there yet seems to be some objection, especially when the property of certain parties is involved.

Commissioners C. C. Pedrick and John G. Dampier, both of whom are good roads advocates, and both of whom devote much valuable time at a price which is no better than gratis, have been working for the past few days in selecting a right-of-way from Hogtown creek west, in the direction of Newberry, for the extension of the road which has already been constructed from Gainesville west to the creek. These officials have devoted their valuable time to this work, inspecting material along the route in the meantime, and just as they were about to order one of the road gangs to work one of the owners of the property through which they desired to pass, served notice of refusal to grant a right-of-way without compensation from the county, and also put the gentlemen on notice that the county must pay five cents a load for every load of deposit taken from the premises.

This information came as a kind of "jar" to the enterprising commissioners, and they at once realized that they had "run up" against a hard proposition, at the same time expressing surprise that any person should stand in the way of their efforts, especially at this time, when the people are clamoring for good roads.

Commissioners Dampier and Pedrick stated in regard to the matter that there were other routes upon which the people wanted hard roads, and that they would abandon the present plans and take up the work in another direction, as many property-owners will be glad to give the county the necessary right-of-way and all the material required. This means, evidently, that road building west will stop for the present, at least.

MR. DAVIS HOME.

Made Extended Visit to the North and Is Looking Better.

W. L. Davis, who owns a fine place a few miles west of Gainesville, has returned from an extended visit to New York, Philadelphia, Washington and the Jamestown Exposition, and, judging from his appearance, the change proved of great benefit to him.

Mr. Davis left this city about six weeks ago in company with W. J. McCormick and W. S. McDowall. The party visited Norfolk, Philadelphia and New York together, separating in the latter city. Mr. Davis returned to Washington, where he spent some time with relatives and friends.

Mr. Davis states that the weather, with one or two exceptions, has been fine, and during the past few days, upon one or two occasions, he felt that a light overcoat would be comfortable. His numerous friends are glad to welcome him home again, and are pleased to see him looking so well.

Why not, did Morocco send delegates to the great Peace Conference?

As to and very significant, it is likely enough, this inexplicable silence of Theodore Rex.

It would hardly be surprising if at the next State Fair trial Harry Orchard should remember a few more.

It is generally announced that Wall Street operators "have lost patience with Roosevelt." Now, what do you think of that?

Such prosperous times are londful, while means fat, juicy things to go with sweet "'taters" and "'nanners."

It is announced that Walter Wellman has sent a newspaper man to the North Pole while a telegram is on.

The tobacco crop is said to have increased the circulation of $400,000 in Kentucky this past season. Pretty good from any crop.

Preparations are being prepared for the winter wheat growing in every section of the State, which will be on a larger scale this year.

Ex-Gov. Pingree, the former popular executive of the A. C. L. Railway lot Florida, has been arrested on charges of embezzling $3,166 of the company's money.

Only four warm nights have been experienced in Gainesville the present season, though during several days they have been almost unendurable and did felt himself in the west.

The report that the messenger boys struck in sympathy with the Standard Oil agitation is probably a fake. Most of the operators left their boys where they go work, hence nothing to strike for.

The Florida resorts on the East Coast have been well patronized this season, but many people who went to the mountains would have been more benefited had they remained in Florida and spent their vacation on the beach.

Reports from every section of the State establish cases of the pestiferous mosquito being more numerous than for many years. They defy all efforts to exterminate them, and ten thousand seem to come to the funeral of every one killed.

F. L. Huffaker, one of the most entertaining writers in the State, heretofore a member of The Tampa Times' staff, has accepted a position on The Tribune and will hereafter devote his energy to advancing the interests of South Florida's leading city.

Hon. John S. Beard, candidate for United States Senator, is making a tour of the State for the purpose of meeting the acquaintance of the people. Senator Beard is a good and able man, but the people of Florida should not turn down Senator Mallory for any man in the State.

LOOKOUT FOR BREAKERS.

As politics and business are inextricably mixed up at the present time more than ever before, it behooves thoughtful men to keep their eyes open and watch the double game as it is being played. With Wall street in a turmoil and the stock market sagging, and money, even for legitimate business purposes hard to obtain, it does not require any guessing to say that there is greater financial trouble ahead. The building boom is quieting down and railroad improvements are being curtailed. So far these indications are mostly confined to the cities, and fairly good times prevail in the country districts. The wise man looks ahead and prepares for any emergency that may be forced upon him, and at all events keeps out of debt and does not buy except what he absolutely needs.

The conference a day or two ago at Oyster Bay of the President, with Secretary Taft and other advisers, was to consider what could be done to prevent the Wall street disturbance from becoming epidemic and spreading all over the country. The continuation of the business boom is necessary for the salvation of the Republican party, it has staked its all on continued prosperity, which it arrogantly declares is due to its tariff and financial policies—breakdown, therefore, would probably bring political disaster. It is reported that it was agreed by the conference that if it becomes necessary that Secretary Cortelyou should throw open the doors of the United States treasury, and every free dollar that the vaults contain should be placed at the service of the New York banks. Whether the gold reserve of $150,000,000 is also to be trenched upon, in case of financial disaster, is not known, but as everything goes with the present Republican administration to gain its political ends, there is no reason to believe it will fear to over ride an act of Congress if that is all there is between business and political troubles.

WANT A WINNER.

The debate now going on between the Democrats about the availability of Mr. Bryan and others for the nomination for President leads The Augusta Chronicle to declare: "While it is certainly desirable that a Southern man be made President, the object must be accomplished at least upon a basis of merit both in man and platform, and not alone upon a mere geographical accident of birth. For the voters of the country to cast their ballots for a candidate merely because he is a Southerner would be as insane as Southern people casting their's against the candidate simply because he hails from New York or any other Northern State. What Democrats want is a candidate that can win, and the best display of Americanism they can make will be to unite in supporting such a man."

There is not the least doubt that ere many years the National government will have to assume entire regulative control of the railroads, State rights or no State rights. There must be uniformity of freight and passenger rates which can never be obtained under the conflicting laws of the different States, and it would be better for the people and the railroads for the National government to do all the regulating.

A news item states: "The messenger boys also walked out." Wonder if anybody expected them to run!

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

According to The St. Augustine Record orange growers in that section are commenting on the disappearance of the white fly. Where a year or two ago they swarmed about the groves in countless myriads, now the trees are looking bright and thrifty, with no white flies about. No surmises as to the reason for the disappearance of the pest are mentioned. Could it be that the long drought was another of those fortunate "calamities" that help Florida on to prosperity as a State every now and then?—Times-Union.

A telegram to The Times-Union from Dowling Park, under date of August 18, says: "Fire supposed to be of incendiary origin completely destroyed the saw mills here, owned by the Dowlings, at an early hour this morning. The aggregate loss is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000, partially covered by insurance. The employes of the mills and citizens worked faithfully to save the property, but the flames had gained too great a headway before being discovered."

The earnings of the tariff protected Steel trust for the last quarter show a net profit of $45,503,705, which allowed the corporation to add $18,500,000 to its surplus after providing for interest on bonds and regular dividends on its watered stocks. Yet the standpatters declare the tariff on steel must not be touched, so as to allow the trust to continue to plunder the American people and add to the millions of its millionaire magnates.

A special to The Pensacola Journal from Apalachicola announces the candidacy of J. F. C. Griggs of that city for the representative to Congress from the Third Congressional District. The city of Apalachicola, and in fact the entire Franklin county, has been without direct representation in Congress for over fifty years, and this fact is prominently brought out by the friends of Mr. Griggs, who feel sure of his election in the primary.

General Law, editor of The Bartow Courier-Informant, is eight times a grand-pa, yet he declines to be "coaxed" into entering the race for superintendent of State schools. We don't blame you, General; there is more pleasure in having the arms of those little darlings entwined around your neck in your comfortable home than in holding all the offices in the State.

It is said that no one can love Governor Johnson of Minnesota for the enemies he has made, because he hasn't made any. If the Democrats of the country continue to talk of him as an eligible presidential candidate, however, he will become quite lovable on account of his new enemies.

ALABAMA RAILROAD COMMISSION

Important Questions Will Be Taken Up at Next Session.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 19.—The question of rates on cotton to and from compresses between stations in Alabama will be taken up at the next meeting of the Alabama railroad commission, also the matter of making the demurrage laws passed by the last session of the legislature rules of the commission. Notice to this effect has been sent out by a clerk of the commission. Answer is to be made in time to set about putting in a new schedule before the crop is ready to move.

Incident to the express rates it is interesting to note that the cost of 1, 2, 3 and 4-pound packages in the state will be cut down from about 10 to 25 cents. The rate on money will also be very much lowered. This making of a rate on money is new, no other state having done it. J. H. Marvin, representing the Southern Express company, is very much pleased that he has been able to make all well with the state.

MANSFIELD MAY QUIT STAGE.

Celebrated Actor Is Not Improving in Health.

Mountain, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Mr. Rictard Mansfield is not improving in health, and those close to him reluctantly admit their conviction that the actor will never again be seen on the stage.

Arrangements have been made to take Mr. Mansfield to his summer home near New London, Conn. The trip will be made on a special train that can be run as slowly as needs be to avoid the discomfort of jolting. Sunday was chosen, as it was thought that it would be quieter at points along the way on the day than on a weekday.

Dr. Lemieux, the distinguished Canadian physician who was summoned here to attend Mr. Mansfield when the latter's condition aroused apprehension, declined to discuss the case. But it is asserted on good authority that the physician has told intimate friends of the family that the famous artist will not act again.

I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Pennsylvania Capitol Scandal.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 19.—Criminal and civil proceedings against all persons concerned in the fraudulent construction and furnishing of Pennsylvaia's $13,000,000 capital are recommended in the report of the capitol investigation commission, made to Governor Stuart. Eighteen persons are named as being involved in the transaction and the attorney general was urged to act at once.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in restored comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

POSITION OF ALABAMA.

Will Enforce State Laws Regulating Railroads.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 19.—The stir from the capitol is that the state laws governing railroads are to be enforced no matter what sort of injunctions are gotten out by the federal court.

Several of the solicitors have intimated that they will not be governed by the injunctions of the United States court, and will proceed in the investigations of violations just the same for failure to put in effect the laws of the state with regard to the rates for freight and passenger traffic.

Governor Comer intimated before leaving that the latest move of the Louisville and Nashville in enjoining indictments and arrests was going to bring the issue to a head, and the general public is of the opinion that there will come the clash between the state and the federal courts in a short time.

Swallowed a Toy Whistle.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 19.—Half a dozen Des Moines surgeons are puzzling over means of removing a tin whistle from the throat of little Willie Sampson, who swallowed the whistle and thereby converted himself into a veritable human calliope. Every breath inhaled or exhaled causes the whistle to screech, and no one in the house is permitted to sleep. The whistle causes the lad no inconvenience. It was located with an X-ray machine, but owing to its peculiar lodgment, the surgeons have thus far hesitated to attempt its removal.

Beautiful Women.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Tex., writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Death Sentence for Harper.

Dalton, Ga., Aug. 19.—News has reached this city that Harper, the man who killed Sheriff Keith, of Murray, about one month ago, has been sentenced to hang on the 20th of next month. The verdict of the jury read "guilty of murder in the first degree." There was no recommendation for mercy, so Judge Fite sentenced Harper to hang, the date being fixed as Sept. 20.

Driver Leaped, but Was Killed.

West Union, O., tAug. 19.—Geo. Morrison, aged 28 years, was driving a traction engine over a bridge 6 miles south of this city, when the structure gave way and the machine broke through it. Morrison then leaped, hoping to save himself, but hit a girder of the bridge and was thrown back under the falling engine. The flywheels, still in motion, cut off his right arm and he was otherwise injured, dying two hours later. It is charged that the bridge was defective.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

[illegible] Henderson returned home today from an extended visit to his sister, Mrs. John F. Cox, of Lakeland.

Our community is remarkably free from sickness so far this year. There has been no serious sickness for many months.

D. F. Henderson will visit Gainesville Monday on a business trip, and from there he will visit the peach orchards around Theresa and Brooklyn, introducing the red fungus to kill the San Jose scale. He has examined most of the orchards in the State, and finds they are all more or less infected with this scale. He claims the red fungus, the natural enemy of the San Jose scale, is by far the cheapest and most successful remedy for the scale, and its thorough introduction the only thing that can save the peach industry of the State.

Slept Two Days and Nights.

Toledo, O., Aug. 19.—Willard Funk, the young man who went to sleep at Stickler's boatshop and could not be awakened, came out of his cataleptic trance at noon the next day none the worse for his experience. Funk slept just two days and two nights. His awakening at noon was peculiar.

NOT BRIGHT IN OHIO.

Republican Factions Likely To Have Trouble.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Senator Charles Dick, who has been in Washington a couple of days, has left for Ohio. He has consistently declined to discuss for publication the Republican controversy in the Buckeye State, but has told his friends that the situation is not worrying him any more than is the opposition, if as much. He created the impression that the contest between the factions is likely to continue until next spring, when delegates to the state and national conventions are to be chosen, and that Senator Foraker will endeavor to split the Ohio delegation to the national convention.

Those who talked with the junior senator found it difficult to escape the conviction that the contest was becoming more acrimonious constantly, and that the participants were realizing that it might involve the ultimate elimination of more than one prominent public man. For this reason the cleavage was becoming more pronounced, and the lines between the contending elements more clearly defined. The senator was asked about the prospect of a reconciliation, but while declining to express a definite opinion indicated that it was not at all promising or impending.

The danger of the state being lost to the Republicans next year is being seriously considered by representative members of the two factions who have been in Washington this week. These men frankly admit that unless the controversy is brought to a reasonable near termination, the menace of the democratic success will become more threatening. In view of the recognition of the possibility of this unfortunate outcome—unfortunate to the republicans—it would not be surprising if certain men who are vitally concerned in party success should before long bend their best energies to patch up peace and bring about the elimination of the cause of the trouble.

GIVES A PERFECT SKIN.

Sulphur in Liquid Form Adds to the Beauty of Women.

"Beauty is only skin deep," but you cannot be beautiful if you have sad skin disease or bad complexion. Hancock's Liquid Sulphur quickly cures eczema, tetter, sores, eruptions, blotches, and all skin diseases. Apply Hancock's Liquid Sulphur Ointment to the face just as you go to bed and it will soon give you a smooth, velvety skin.

Taken internally, Hancock's Liquid Sulphur purifies the blood and clears up the complexion. A few spoonfuls in hot water makes the finest of sulphur baths. All druggists sell it. Sulphur Booklet free, if you write Hancock Liquid Sulphur Co., Baltimore.

Dr. W. W. Leake of Orlando, Fla., who was cured, says: "It is the most wonderful remedy for Eczema I have ever known."

Important Decision.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 19.—That the practices of the Marathoni County Railroad company, owned by Lieut. Governor W. D. Connor, are unlawful, inequitable and socially and economically parasitic, is the conclusion of a decision of the railroad commission on a complaint lodged by Nicolas Detreveler. The commission found that in some cases passengers were carried free and in many cases less than car load of lummber did not have to pay freight. It was also disclosed that the company did not publish a tariff schedule. At the hearing a month ago Mr. Connor set up the defense that his road was not a common carrier and not subject to regulation.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 19.—A special to the Advertiser says the explosion of both main boilers at the Autauga Lumber company, at Prottsville Friday, caused the death of Engineer Thomas Cherry, fatally injured Sawyer Chilcot, a Mr. Murphy and an unknown man, besides injuring seven others and wrecking the plant. The body of Cherr ywas blown to bits and twenty minutes' time was consumed in gathering up the remains.

Big Strike Ends.

Belfast, Ireland, Aug. 19.—The negotiations between arbitrators and the leaders of the strikers resulted in a settlment of the labor troubles at this place.

Pure Food Bill Adopted.

London, Aug. 19—The pure food bill, introduced by John Burns, president of the local government board, has been adopted in the house of commons.

S.S.S. RIDS THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe into our system. The blood in its constant passage through the lungs absorbs the germs, and they destroy the rich, red corpuscles of this vital fluid and reduce it to such a weak, watery condition that it is unable to properly nourish the system, and disease gets a foothold. Then the symptoms of Malaria, such as pale, sallow complexions, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, and perhaps chills and fever show that the trouble is affecting every part of the body. Malaria also affects the liver, producing a chronic state of biliousness, and often a long spell of fever follows when the blood becomes fully contaminated with the poison. Chronic Sores and Ulcers, boils, aches and pains, and skin affections of various kinds often result from this insidious disease if the poison is allowed to accumulate in the blood in sufficient quantities. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. This great remedy goes down into the blood and drives out all germs, microbes and poisons, and permanently cures Malaria, S. S. S. not only cleanses the blood of the cause, but furnishes it with the healthful properties it needs, so that instead of a weak, germ-infected stream, spreading disease throughout the system, it becomes a rich, red fluid, nourishing the body and enabling it to resist disease. S. S. S. is also the greatest of all tonics, and builds up and invigorates the entire system while ridding the blood of the germs of Malaria. Persons who are suffering from Malaria will be pleased with the prompt and pleasant results produced by the use of S. S. S., and can take it with confidence because it is an absolutely safe medicine, being free from harmful minerals of any kind. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

THE MAKINGS OF GLUE.

Not a Definite Organic Substance, but Product of Transformations.

Glue is not a definite, positive organic substance, as most people suppose. Chemists tell us that glue does not pre-exist in any animal organism except under abnormal conditions as a disease—but is the product of several transformations.

The first transformation takes place in drying the hide. If a green hide is boiled after being prepared in exactly the same manner by liming etc., while it is yet green, an entirely different product of less consistency is secured than by drying the hide after liming and then boiling.

The second transformation seems to take place in boiling the material, probably from action of the heat. The third transformation occurs in the drying of the jelly secured in the boiling operation.

Still another transformation occurs in the drying of this jelly into actual glue, and this series of charges does not end here, for glue dissolved in water and again boiled sufficiently long loses its form once more and will not gelatinize, but will remain in liquid form.

Glue yielding substances are produced by the animal economy from protein bodies, albumen, fibrin and casein. The impossibility of preserving for any length of time the stock from which glue is made renders it necessary to adopt some system in choosing and preserving it until sufficient quantities are collected without fermentation or decomposition. Hence the refuse from tanneries consisting of the clippings of hides, ears and tail-pieces of ox, calf and sheep and from skins of other animals are preferred because they can be dressed with lime, which removes the hair and acts as an antiseptic.

The ordinary bone stock glue is made from the larger bones of cattle and horn piths, collected from different sources. A large quantity of waste bones is accumulated in the preparation of tinned provisions.

If these have not been overheated and are in good condition a considerable amount of glue can be obtained from them. The bones from the head, ribs and feet give a better yield than those of the thighs and legs.

There is also the hoof glue, which is made from the hoofs of different animals. Then there is glue made from sinews and fleshings, and also a grade known as rabbit glue made from the skins of hares and rabbits. This glue makes a good water test, but should never be used to cement a belt. There is a large quantity of this glue made in this country, and a person not very familiar with it could easily be deceived.

The age of animals yielding glue stock has an important influence on the product. While from younger animals the production as a rule is of a lighter color, more abundant and more easily obtained, it contains more chondrin, so that for solutions of equal strength those from mature animals will be found to be of the great consistency and the glue more solid.

When again there is what is known as the pig stock glue, which is made from the feet of hogs. Next comes the fish glue or isinglass. Its varieties are numerous, and a thorough knowledge of them can only be obtained when one is personally acquainted with the different factories and stock from which they are made.

The best of this material, however, is made from the sounds or air bladders of the different species of fish. The air bladders of the common sturgeon and other fish caught in northerly climates make the best.—Wood Craft.

Hard to Photograph.

There is said to be no portrait more difficult to make by photography than that of a colored person or a baby. The dark skin of the former reflects no light, and the lineaments are therefore only indistinctly shown on a photographic plate. A baby, on the other hand, is restless, with changeable expression and uncertain pose. The predicament of a Germantown amateur may therefore be imagined when he was asked to take the picture of a baby, aged four months, in the arms of its colored nurse, black as she could be. Several attempts resulted in a successful picture of the baby, but the result was displeasing to the nurse. An exposure long enough to secure the features of the nurse resulted in decided twists and turns on the baby's part that upset the latter's pictorial aspect to a noticeable degree. Just now the amateur is figuring on how to get out of it and hoping that fate will help him by separating the nurse and child long enough to make it possible to please all concerned.—Philadelphia Record.

Niagara.

Niagara is a corruption of the Seneca word "neagara," meaning "across the neck," an allusion to a strip of land between the lakes. The name has been subjected to many changes since the discovery of the cataract, more than thirty different readings being found in the writings of the various early explorers and geographers.

BLIND MAN'S BUFF.

Origin of This Favorite Sport of Childhood and Youth.

This favorite sport of childhood and youth is of French origin and very high antiquity, having been introduced into England in the train of the Norman conquerors. Its French name, "Colin Maillard," was that of a brave warrior the memory of whose exploits still lives in the chronicles of the middle ages.

In the year 980 Liege reckoned among its valiant chiefs one Jean Colin. He acquired the name of Maillard from his offensive weapon being a mallet, wherewith he might be used to crush his opponents. In one of the feuds which were of frequent occurrence in those days he opposed the Count de Looz in a pitched battle, and, so runs the story, at the instigation of Colin Maillard lost both his eyes. He ordered his esquire to take him into the thickest of the fight, and, furiously brandishing his mallet, did such fearful execution that victory soon declared itself for him.

When Robert of France heard of these feats at arms he bestowed favor and honors upon Colin, and so great was the fame of the exploit that it was commemorated in the pantomimic representations that formed part of the rude dramatic performances of the age. By degrees the children learned to act it for themselves, and it took the form of a familiar sport.

The blindfolded pursuer as, with bandaged eyes and extended hands, he gropes for a victim to pounce upon seems in some degree to repeat the action of Colin Maillard, the tradition of which is also traceable in the name, blind man's buff.

A REALISTIC ACT.

Amusing Story of Joseph Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle.

While he was playing Rip Van Winkle at Chicago Joseph Jefferson once went to the theater very much exhausted by a long day's fishing on the lake. As the curtain rose on the third act it disclosed the white haired Rip still deep in his twenty years' nap. Five, ten, twenty minutes passed, and he did not awaken. The audience began to get impatient and the prompter uneasy.

The great actor doubtless knew what he was about, but this was carrying the realistic business too far. The fact was that all this time Jefferson was really sleeping the sleep of the just, or, rather, of the fisherman who had sat eight hours in the sun. Finally the gallery became uproarious, and one of the "gods" wanted to know if there was going to be "nineteen years more of this snooze business."

At this point Jefferson began to snore. This decided the prompter, who opened a small trap beneath the stage and began to prod Rip from below. The fagged comedian fumbled in his pocket for an imaginary railway ticket and muttered drowsily, "Going right through, 'ductor."

At this entirely new reading the audience was transfixed with amazement, when all at once Jefferson sat up with a loud shriek, evidently in agony. The exasperated prompter had jabbed him with a pin. Consciousness of the situation came to him, and the play went on after that with a rush.

Getting an Opening.

A man had a story about a gun which he delivered himself of upon all occasions. At a dinner party one evening he writhed in his chair for over an hour, waiting for a chance to introduce his story, but no opportunity presented itself. Finally he slipped a coin into the hand of a waiter and whispered:

"When you leave the room again, slam the door."

The waiter slammed the door as directed, and the man sprang to his feet, with the exclamation:

"What's that noise—a gun?"

"Oh, no!" resumed his host. "It was only the door."

"Ah, I see! Well, speaking of guns reminds me of a little story," etc.—Liverpool Mercury.

Sun, Moon and Tides.

The sun and moon conjointly affect the oceans in obedience to the fact in nature known as the law of the attraction of gravity. It is the nature of things that the sun and moon shall pull at the earth's waters, and no further explanation can be given. When the sun and moon are pulling in line the tides are highest and when pulling against each other the lowest. The moon is so much nearer the earth than the sun that it does most of the pulling, notwithstanding its greatly inferior dimensions.

Gnawed His Way Out of Prison.

A burglar named Schaarschmidt, in prison at Gera, deliberately set to work to gnaw through a thick oaken beam in front of his cell window. It was a work of seven weeks. The fragments of wood which were torn away with his teeth he replaced with chewed bread until the beam was almost gnawed through. A final smashing noise was heard by the wardens, but before they could appear Schaarschmidt had escaped.—London Chronicle.

C. F. Goodman has returned from Berrien, Ga., to which point he was summoned a week ago on account of the serious illness of his father. Friends will be glad to learn that he left the patient greatly improved.

There were a few Thomases from Monteocha in the city yesterday, among them being W. M. Thomas, S. T. Thomas and son, Sherman Thomas, A. A. Thomas and Wade Thomas. It wasn't a very good day for Thomases, either.

Mrs. M. E. Finch and son, Joseph W., of this city, and Mrs. T. R. Sweat and sons, Wilton and Carroll, have gone to the Jamestown Exposition. They will make an extended tour, visiting Richmond and Washington before returning home.

H. H. and C. A. Bryan of Orange Heights were among those who came to Gainesville on business Monday, and while here called to have The Sun sent to their address. They are connected with the mill of Charles Eddy at Orange Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Carter were in the city for a short time Sunday, en route from their home in Citra for an extended visit to Atlanta, Ga., and other points. Mr. Carter, who is a popular conductor in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, is on his annual vacation, and the party may go as far as the Jamestown Exposition.

O. Petree has returned to Palatka, where he is engaged in the contract of laying several miles of concrete sidewalk. Mr. Petree reports fair progress, but states that the rains, which have been constant and severe, have somewhat interfered with the work for the past few days. Mr. Petree has several months of contract work before him in Gainesville, including the paving of East Main and other streets, with crushed rock. This work will begin as soon as the sewerage laterals are laid.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Means, North Gainesville, are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a fine boy, who came Sunday. Friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. Charles Bandy of Kissimmee has returned to her home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. L. C. Conklin here. She was accompanied by Mrs. Conklin, who will be her guest for a few days.

Manager McCormick of the Western Union Telegraph Company requests The Sun to announce that, after this date, the local office will close at 8 o'clock p. m., the night service, for the present at least, being discontinued.

A new kind of a store has been opened in Gainesville—one where you can buy most anything you may need at exceptionally cheap prices. All we ask is a call and let us compare prices. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Miss Ethel Olmstead, an accomplished young lady of Alachua, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city with friends, making her departure Monday for Inverness, where she holds a responsible position as manager of the abstract office.

E. H. Sellards, State Geologist, with headquarters in Tallahassee, is in the city. He has been in the Micanopy section for some time, and will go from here to Lake City. He is now specially engaged on the underground water supply survey.

Mrs. L. W. Jackson has returned from a visit to her brother, Rev. J. M. Deveneau, at Hampton. Friends of this lady will be glad to learn that she is recovering from the injury received by being kicked by a horse about three months ago, and that she is now able to walk without the aid of crutches.

Ray Witherspoon of High Springs is visiting his mother in this city, having been compelled to leave his position in the railroad shops temporarily on account of an injury to his foot by a piece of machinery falling on it. He is getting along nicely, however, and expects to be able to travel soon, when he will take a few days' vacation at the Jamestown Exposition before returning to work.

M. Clemments of Hawthorn was a welcome visitor to The Sun office yesterday. He was for years a locomotive engineer on the S. A. L. railroad, but several years ago left that occupation for the more congenial avocation of farming. Like all machinists, however, he still takes great interest in different kinds of machinery, but had to confess that he would have to decline to take the contract to erect a typesetting machine.
